

welcome

Welcome to ARTZBEAT Magazine!

ARTZBEAT Magazine, dedicated to promoting the Fine Arts throughout the Desert Foothills Community, published its inaugural Spring/Summer edition in 2007. Currently working on our twenty-fourth (24th) issue, we continue to promote the visual and performing arts with a professionally designed, glossy, four-color publication twice a year, in November and April, to showcase, celebrate and advocate for the valuable fine arts programs offered in our schools and surrounding community.

Journalism students, community arts advocates, writers and artists contribute articles and photographs to every issue. We print and distribute 10,000 copies of each issue to Cave Creek Unified School District #93 staff and students, surrounding charter and private schools, local businesses, and nonprofit organizations. ARTZBEAT Magazines are also available at the Cactus Shadows Fine Arts Center and whenever possible, at a variety of community events.

The magazine depends on local businesses for support through the purchase of ads.

We are grateful to all the businesses and nonprofit organizations that have underwritten this creative endeavor, especially those who have been with us for over a decade. We truly value and appreciate your commitment and ongoing support.

If you are new to ARTZBEAT Magazine, we invite you to become an advertiser. Take advantage of our unique ad distribution with the school district. Help us as we encourage young artists and create awareness of the organizations and individuals that provide them with opportunities. We think you'll enjoy becoming an arts advocate ..... with business benefits.

Sincerely,

Evelyn T. Holbrook
